Answers and explanations

Correct

1. The text on a service website is too small. What should you try first?

Your answer: Use the browser's zoom control

Browser zoom changes webpage size. Choose the control that matches the problem.

Review week 1 · Technology Basics

Correct

2. A volunteer scheduler only needs to know when you are unavailable. What should you share?

Your answer: Free/busy information

Free/busy can support scheduling without disclosing event details. Verify the service's options.

Review week 1 · Technology Basics

Correct

3. Autocomplete suggests the wrong email address. What is the best response?

Your answer: Check and choose the intended address

Automation can save time but needs review, especially for names, addresses and meaning.

Review week 1 · Technology Basics

Correct

4. A handout is going to a shared lab printer. What should you verify first?

Your answer: Printer destination, preview and a test page

Verify the destination and output before sending a large print job.

Review week 1 · Technology Basics

Correct

5. Before posting in a professional group, what should you check?

Your answer: The active identity, audience and account credentials

Check the identity and audience. Keep credentials distinct and use appropriate account protections.

Review week 4 · Digital Citizenship

Correct

6. You need feedback next week. What is a considerate communication choice?

Your answer: State the deadline and respect expected working hours

Timing and a clear response expectation help the recipient respond appropriately.

Review week 4 · Digital Citizenship

Correct

7. A new teammate does not know an abbreviation. What should you do?

Your answer: Explain it plainly without making assumptions

Inclusive communication explains context and avoids assumptions about age, culture or ability.

Review week 4 · Digital Citizenship

Correct

8. You cannot find a command in an updated app. What is the best next step?

Your answer: Use current official help and describe the exact task

Version-specific help and a precise question support independent learning.

Review week 1 · Digital Citizenship

Correct

9. You need local public-library opening hours. Which query best fits?

Your answer: Library name, town and opening hours

Search terms should identify the service and location needed for the task.

Review week 2 · Information Management

Correct

10. A directory promises a local service without naming a source. What is the best check?

Your answer: Confirm availability through the provider's official contact

Responsible sources and corroborating evidence matter more than ranking or appearance.

Review week 2 · Information Management

Correct

11. A reliable article explains an old program that no longer operates locally. What is the problem?

Your answer: It may be outdated or irrelevant to this task

Accuracy, currency and relevance are separate questions.

Review week 2 · Information Management

Correct

12. A service-request form asks for information unrelated to the request. What should you do?

Your answer: Check the purpose and collector before providing it

Understand the collection purpose, provide only needed information, and check the result.

Review week 2 · Information Management

Correct

13. How should you mark a document's main sections?

Your answer: Apply appropriate heading styles

Real heading styles provide structure; visual bolding alone does not.

Review week 3 · Content Creation

Correct

14. C2, C3 and C4 contain quantities. Which formula totals that range?

Your answer: =SUM(C2:C4)

A colon marks an inclusive cell range. Verify the formula by changing one input.

Review week 3 · Content Creation

Correct

15. You want to adapt someone else's diagram. What is the right first step?

Your answer: Check allowed uses and attribution conditions

Find the actual reuse permission and follow its conditions.

Review week 3 · Content Creation

Correct

16. A coauthor must change wording in your handout. What should you provide?

Your answer: The editable file with suitable permissions

Choose the format and access that support the recipient's task. PDF is often useful for finished layout.

Review week 3 · Content Creation

Correct

17. Which subject best helps a recipient act on a schedule question?

Your answer: Please confirm the resource workshop start time

A specific subject tells the recipient what the message concerns.

Review week 4 · Communication

Correct

18. You use Bcc for an announcement. What protection does it provide?

Your answer: Conceals that recipient list from other recipients

Bcc hides recipient addresses; it does not encrypt content or prevent forwarding.

Review week 4 · Communication

Correct

19. A streaming offer starts at no charge. What should you check before accepting?

Your answer: Whether it renews, the price and how to cancel

Free trials can become recurring subscriptions. Review the terms and total cost.

Review week 4 · Communication

Correct

20. A downloaded app offers extra features for purchase. What is a sensible step?

Your answer: Review the charge and purchase controls before authorizing

In-app purchases are separate transactions; check terms, controls and receipts.

Review week 4 · Communication

Correct

21. A team coauthors a file during a live call. Which description fits?

Your answer: Synchronous collaboration

Synchronous collaboration happens at the same time; asynchronous work happens at different times.

Review week 4 · Collaboration

Correct

22. A partner only needs to leave feedback on your draft. Which permission is appropriate when available?

Your answer: Commenter access

Commenter access fits feedback without granting direct editing rights.
